

EXHIBITION AGREEMENT OUTBACK ARTS GALLERY

Submissions

Applications are being sought from local & regional artists wishing to exhibit in the Outback Arts Gallery in Coonamble, NSW. This art space allows local and regional artists to exhibit in a high-profile exhibition space.

Artists are invited to submit a proposal that outlines their exhibition including ideas, concepts or bodies of work. Images of work must be provided to support the proposal. It is preferred that the exhibition contain at least 20% new work.

An assessment panel assesses applications made up of the Outback Arts Executive Director, the Outback Arts Chair and one independent arts community member.

The Outback Arts region includes Bourke, Brewarrina, Bogan, Cobar, Coonamble, Warren and Walgett Shires.

The Creative Arts Centre

The newly renovated Creative Arts Centre was officially opened on 12th October 2019. It provides our region with a versatile space for creative and cultural development.

Throughout the year the Outback Arts Galleries feature a variety of exhibitions, specialising in artwork from across Far Western NSW which crosses a broad range of media and art styles. The gallery space is devoted to exhibitions for solo, group and travelling shows.

The Creative Arts Centre is home to the Outback Arts regional office which is the local Regional Arts Development Organisation for the region. Outback Arts receives core funding support from Create NSW, the seven supporting areas of local government and external project partners, to deliver a diverse, creative and engaging program of activity across the region.
